CHARGE IT TO HARD LUCK

Mustn't Blame Nationals Too Much for Defeat Yesterday—Falkenberg
Deserved Better Fate.

ST. LOUIS, June 20.—Washington lost again, but this time there was an element of hard luck which made the defeat somewhat excusable, although they could have won.

In the ninth inning Stahl tried to get home on a triple. It was one of those plays where if a man happens to be content with three bases and nobody brings him in he is a dub for not taking a chance in the first place, and if he does take a chance and gets put out, and the man following makes a hit, he is a dub for running unnecessary risk. It's all in the game, and if things are breaking your way you win, otherwise you lose.

Falkenberg was hit twice in a bunch of two in the seventh inning, when Wallace singled and O'Brien doubled. The two runs in the fifth inning were due to a single, a sacrifice, a scratchy hard-luck single, a poor throw by Cross, and a poor piece of judgment by Schlatky.

Theory Jones was on the job in the first inning and walked for Washington. Schlatky sacrificed, and when Wallace did an impromptu contortion act on Cross' grounder the man who thinks up things about who to bat got home. In the eighth inning Schlatky hit, stole, and was brought home by Cross' single. In the ninth with Altizer out, Stahl tripled to left and was nailed at the plate. Wakefield followed with a double, and Stanley fled to Niles.

ST. PATRICK'S AND TRINITY FAILED TO BREAK TIE

In one of the best games played in the Marquette League this season, St. Patrick and Trinity went eight innings to a tie, score, 5-5.

Trinity outbatted St. Patrick 2 to 1, but clever fielding by the latter held the former down. The work of Cassasa at bat was the feature. Waldron, center field on Trinity, had his nose broken in the sixth and was compelled to leave the game. The score:

CHINAMAN THREW UP SPONGE IN THIRD

Didn't Last Long in International
Bouts at Los Angeles—Baker
Beat Dalton.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., June 20.—Harry Baker, the amateur featherweight champion from the Olympic Club, San Francisco, clearly outpointed Kid Dalton last night in a cleverly-fought ten-round bout. The Dalton-Baker scrap principally of asprings youngsters.

Ah Wing's second throw up the sponge after Caesar Atel had put the Chinaman down in the third.

Billy Walsh beat Kid Barry in two rounds, and Johnny Walsh got the decision over Tommy Leahy.

Jim Trimble beat the Turk.

Fred McDonald went out to Billy Locke in two rounds.

The Arizona pacer, Bystander, 2:44, can be looked for some great speed this year if he keeps his form. He recently went a mile in 2:04, and a half mile in 1:04. Ed Hall is training him at Phoenix, Ariz.

GOOD ROAD WORK FOR TOMMY LOWE

Running Around Telling His Friends He Doesn't Fear
Eddie Crowley.

Tommy Lowe is getting plenty of road work these days. It comes from running around among his friends telling them that he is not afraid of the peevish Eddie Crowley.

Since Crowley's admirers got busy and spread the report that Lowe was trying to back out of a match with their man, Lowe has changed front and now declares by the great horn spoon that he will fight the peevish one at any time and any place at any weight, if the purse can be arranged satisfactorily. It is possible that the financial side of the argument will be fixed up today or tomorrow, and then these doughty heroes of the padded mitts will meet in the near future.

Manager Has a Pull.

Lowe says he has a manager over in New York who has more pull than three turkeys, and that people had better stop boasting him. He is all set up about the aspersions cast upon his abilities by the Crowley crowd, and says if he ever meets Eddie in the ring that young man will look like a Russian official who has been the star attraction at a bombfest.

The withdrawing of the weight stipulation by Lowe means that the men will fight practically at catchweights, and that Crowley will have between seven and nine pounds advantage. If Crowley wins it will be due to this, for it is a safe bet that Lowe can outbox him and outspeed him. Lowe did very well in New York, and recently, and those who saw him there were much impressed by his ability. He had engagements for nearly every night until the greedy grafters who wanted all the money at once cut in with big fights and put the game to the bad.

Now that the open game is dead in Gotham, the sports there are thinking about matching Lowe in several private bouts. They are thinking that Lowe is a safe bet that Lowe can outbox him and outspeed him. Lowe did very well in New York, and recently, and those who saw him there were much impressed by his ability. RIVERDALE TOOK GAME FROM BRENTWOOD NINE

Former Had Hard Time Winning.
Stick Work of Stephen and Catching of McGee the Features.

Riverdale defeated the Brentwood team of the Suburban League yesterday evening in a hotly contested game by the close score of 11 to 10.

The features were the batting of Stephen and the catching of McGee for the winners, and the pitching of McGee for the Brentwood battery, both played an excellent game. The score:
